8. [] Talked to Mr. Robert Blum, Senate Foreign Relations Committee staff, at the suggestion of Angus Thuermer and told him that [] whose reports are contained in the OSS files on the [] is a free-lance writer in the Washington area and can be located through the telephone book. I also gave him the name of [] a Woodrow Wilson scholar at the Smithsonian. Mr. Blum said that these names would be most helpful. He made no mention of when he will be returning to Headquarters to further refine the documents selected for declassification during his visit to Headquarters on Wednesday. 25X1
9. [] Met with Mr. Steve Berg, Administrative Assistant to Representative Robert H. Steele (R., Conn.), and returned to him the original of a letter from Representative Steele's field office in Connecticut concerning the complaint of a constituent, [] I told Mr. Berg that [] mentioned in the correspondence, [] is an Agency employee and that [] complaint had been fully reviewed after the first of her many phone calls to our Office of Security. I told him that in our determination the matter was a personal one between the two families. Mr. Berg thanked me very much for coming by and asked if the original of the correspondence could be returned to Representative Steele "as if it had never been sent in the first place." I responded that we would be pleased to do so and left the letter with him. 25X1
10. [] In the absence of Richard Barton, Employee Benefits Subcommittee Staff of House Post Office and Civil Service Committee, I left a message with his secretary, Jane Hatcherson, that [] who had been recommended for an interview, has not filed an application nor scheduled herself for testing. In consequence her file is being closed. 25X1
11. [] Met with Mr. John Martiny, Chief Counsel, House Post Office and Civil Service Committee, and thanked him for the consideration and assistance given the Agency with regard to the Ervin bill. Mr. Martiny noted that we will probably have the same problem to face in the next Congress. 25X1
